Dear Team,

I am writing to follow up on my previous requests made over the last 10 days regarding a change to my EMI debit date.

Unfortunately, I have not yet received a resolution.

As previously mentioned, I am unable to meet the current 5th of the month deadline because my salary is credited on or after the 5th. Consequently, the upcoming auto-debit scheduled for May 5th is at high risk of bouncing due to insufficient funds.

I want to reiterate my commitment to making timely payments, but the current alignment with my salary cycle makes this impossible.

Please adjust my EMI date to the 10th or 15th of the month to ensure successful processing.

Please note that if the payment fails on May 5th despite my repeated attempts to resolve this over the past 10 days, I cannot be held responsible for any resulting bounce charges or impact on my credit score.

I look forward to your immediate confirmation that this change has been processed.

PFA the cancelled cheque for extending the auto debit date

Thanks and regards

Shekhar K. Prasad
